

With 10 years of musical experience, Michael Robinson has studied guitar, piano, and musical composition. His passion for ear training, musical literacy, and guitar pedagogy is shared in his lessons with others. He has been teaching guitar for three years and has taught a wide range of students both young and old. In 2009 he trained at BYU in piano technology under the direction of a renowned Utah technician, Keith Kopp.

He tunes and repairs pianos and is pursuing his certifications in piano technology. He and his wife, Hannah, have been married 2 years and currently reside in Saratoga Springs. Michael is attending Utah Valley University studying business. In his free time he enjoys reading, writing, spending time with his family and of course...playing the guitar.
